

Come Amaryllis

William Lawes (1602-45)

$\text{♩} = 110$ 1.  2.

1. Come, A-ma-ryl-lis now let us be mer-ry, Sing no-li-fi to-li-fi to-li-fi cher-ry; Let
3.  4.

Phyl-lis, thy si-ster, as brown as a ber-ry, Sing No-li-fi to-li-fi to-li-fi cher-ry,
2. Da - mon takes joy in his trea - sure, his trea - sure, and Ti - t'rus in pip - ing and danc-ing takes plea-sure, and no man can e-ver be heart-i-ly mer-ry, but No-li-fi to-li-fi to - li - fi cher - ry, 3. Ploughs would stand still (and) the world would soon pe - rish; for thee and thy Phyl-lis there's no man would che - rish, and shep - herds would of their flocks quick-ly be wea-ry, but No-li-fi to-li-fi to-li-fi cher-ry.
